Solicitor Wilson Announces Free Curbside Pickup for Narcan on Wednesday, May 26, 2021

Berkeley County, SC – Solicitor Scarlett A. Wilson announces a free curbside pickup for Narcan in an effort to curb opioid overdoses. Solicitor Wilson stated, “Our community, and our nation, has seen a spike in opioid overdoses during the past year. Narcan is a proven, temporary antidote to opioid overdose. It buys precious time for medical treatment of an overdose. It is safe and easy to administer. We are teaming up with the Moncks Corner Police Department, WakeUp Carolina and the Kennedy Center, to offer this free curbside Narcan distribution event.”

Curbside distribution will take place on Wednesday, May 26, 2021, between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., at the Market Pavilion of the Regional Recreation Complex, located at 418 East Main Street in Moncks Corner. The Narcan kits are free, courtesy of WakeUp Carolina and the Kennedy Center.

To secure a kit, the following form must be completed in advance of the distribution event. Once the form is submitted, the recipient will receive educational and training videos to watch in advance.
